

Morris K. Udall Scholarship

The Morris K. Udall Scholarship and Excellence in National Environmental Policy Foundation was authorized by the U.S. Congress in 1992 to honor Congressman Morris King Udall and his legacy of public service. The Foundation is supported by a special trust fund in the U.S. Treasury and contributions from the private sector.

Guidelines

The Udall Foundation furthers Congressman Udall's legacy by awarding approximately 80 scholarship of up to $5,000 (and 50 honorable mentions) on the basis of merit to sophomore and junior level college students. Scholarships are offered in any of three categories:

- To students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to the environment; or
- To Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to tribal public policy; or
- To Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to Native health care.

To be considered, a student must be nominated by his or her college or university using the official nomination materials provided to each institution.

Conditions of Scholarship Eligibility

To be considered for nomination for this scholarship, students must adhere to the following criteria:

- Be a matriculated sophomore or junior-level student at a two-year or four-year institution of higher education, pursuing a bachelor's or associate's degree during the 2010/2011 academic year. "Sophomore" is defined as a student who attends at least two more years of full-time undergraduate study beginning in fall 2010. "Junior" is defined as a student who attends at least one more year of full-time undergraduate study beginning in fall 2010.
- Be committed to a career related to the environment, or committed to a career in tribal public policy or Native American health care.
- Have a college grade-point average of at least a "B" or the equivalent.
- Be pursuing full-time study during the 2010/2011 academic year.
- Be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or U.S. permanent resident.

If you are interested in applying for this scholarship or would like more information regarding this scholarship, please visit the Udall website at www.udall.gov.

Deadline to submit an application to the Financial Aid Office to be considered a nominee is: February 5, 2010.