Child Development Presentation Rubric Shared template

You may earn up to 125 Points on your Child Development presentation. You may choose any toy, game, gadget or program designed for any developmental stage from infancy through adolescence. Find at least three original research articles on the item and two other sources. The research does not have to relate to the specific brand of item but can apply to the general category of the item. For example if you choose to present on Barbie Dolls, you can use general research on dolls; if you choose to present on halo, you can use general research on violent video games; if you choose Big Brothers Big Sisters you can use research on mentoring. You will need to tie the research from the product directly to aspects of physical, cognitive, and/or socio-emotional development. Make sure to explicitly discuss the studies and state any associated positive or negative developmental outcomes. This will be a 5-7 slide presentation. The 7th slide should list at least 5 references in APA style. Your presentation should last 5-7 minutes. For further instruction, see the grading rubric prior to completing this assignment.

Score to grade mapping rules

The minimum possible score for this rubric is 0 points and it will be converted to the minimum grade available in this module (which is zero unless the scale is used).
The maximum score 125 points will be converted to the maximum grade.
Intermediate scores will be converted respectively and rounded to the nearest available grade.
If a scale is used instead of a grade, the score will be converted to the scale elements as if they were consecutive integers.

Does the PowerPoint Consist of 5-7 Slides	1-3 slides 0 points		4 slides 1 points	5-7 slides 3 points
Is the PowerPoint presentation esthetically pleasing	The PowerPoint is not esthetically pleasing. This can result from lack of color, too much text on slides, font size below 18 point font, lack of symmetry. 0 points	The PowerPoint is a work in progress. Some of the essential elements are present but the product did not come together in an esthetically pleasing manor. 5 points	The PowerPoint is esthetically pleasing. Excellent use of color, spacing, adequate text on slides, font size varies with a minimum of 18 point font, items are symmetrically aligned.	The PowerPoint meets all the basic requirements and further demonstrates an artful ability to capture the essence of the topic. 7 points
