Section 2 – Extenuating Circumstances

If you have extenuating circumstances that prohibited you from earning academic credit, detail your circumstances below. You must attach third party documentation to substantiate your claim or you will be denied financial aid at Kalamazoo Valley. Examples of extenuating circumstances include:

- Death of an immediate family member (must include the relationship of family member to the student, copy of death certificate).
- Documented hospitalization or illness of self, child or parent (if self, must include dates and a health care provider's decision, written on official letterhead, as to the student's readiness to return to school).
- Military obligations (must include documentation from commanding officer).
- Victim of a crime or unexpected disaster (include copy of police report, third party letters, etc).
- Other circumstances not addressed in the above categories. Submit a written statement that explains your situation including third party supporting documentation.

I certify that all the information reported on this form is complete and accurate. If requested, I agree to provide additional documentation to the Financial Aid Office.

Warning: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this form, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.
