

Kalamazoo Valley Community College FOUNDATION

Established in 1980 the Foundation accepts both unrestricted contributions and those designed for specific purposes, such as student scholarships, the purchase of necessary equipment to improve instruction and construction of new facilities.

The Kalamazoo Valley Community College Foundation serves as an independent 501(c)(3) charitable organization for support of and benefits for the college, its students, faculty, staff and affiliated entities such as the Kalamazoo Valley Museum.

MISSION

EDUCATION IS IMPORTANT

Individuals who earn at least a certificate of achievement or a two-year associate degree can expect to earn almost $1.5 million over a 40-year career. Compare this to that of a high school graduate who will earn around $1.2 million. Those who do not complete high school will earn only about $800,000 over the same time period. This is a significant difference and shows that higher levels of education and training substantially boost lifetime earnings.

KEEPING COLLEGE AFFORDABLE

Keeping college affordable has always been a priority at Kalamazoo Valley Community College. Even with one of the lowest tuition rates in the state, many of our students still need financial assistance. Last year the college processed more than 13,000 requests for financial aid. Only 51%, just over 4,622 students, received some form of aid. The number of financial aid applications continues to increase and the Foundation's scholarship fund is one way the college works to meet student needs.
